

Open call

Call for entries for the Stone Lane Sculpture Exhibition 2023

£1000 Ashburner prize¹, to be awarded for the sculpture that best represents the theme :-

‘Sense of Place’

‘Sense of Place’ reflects upon the relationship between sculpture and the lived experience of place. With Dartmoor as its backdrop, the exhibition presents a dialogue between artist and the natural world, site and memory, longing and belonging, human histories and contested territories.

Closing 12:00 28th February 2023

Organisation Stone Lane Gardens charitable trust

Region South West England

Address Stone Lane Gardens, Stone Farm, Stone Lane, Chagford, Devon TQ13 8JU

Email sculpture@stonelanegardens.com

Website <https://stonelanegardens.com/>

Applications are invited from emerging/early career sculptors based in or connected to the South West of England. Submissions are free and open to all. It is a selling exhibition. Please submit photographs of your work or details of proposed work including dimensions and weight if possible. The application form can be downloaded from the Stone Lane website.

The gardens are unique. Potential applicants are encouraged to visit before responding to the call. Please email sculpture@stonelanegardens.com to arrange a guided tour.

Our 2023 selectors are :

Neil Musson :- A renowned international artist who transforms the way in which people experience their immediate surroundings.

Professor Paul Fieldsend-Danks :- Vice Chancellor and Chief Executive Arts University Plymouth, Professor of Fine Art

David Savage – Stone Lane Gardens Charity Trustee

Dates

28th February @ 12.00 Closing date for applications

Mid March Notification of selection

¹ Supported by Caradon Granite

18th & 19th May

Installation

1st June

Exhibition opens

31st October

Exhibition closes

7th November

De-install. Unsold exhibits to be removed by exhibitors.